

MOSHER

The Mosher family came originally from Manchester and London, England.

Hugh Mosher, immigrant and son of Stephen, sailed from Manchester, England to Boston in 1636. He located first in Salem, where he became a friend of Roger Williams. When Williams was banished from Massachusetts in October, 1636, Hugh Mosher went with him to Rhode Island (or joined him there during the winter of that year). He married Lydia Maxon. Hugh distinguished himself as an Ensign in the war against King Philip. He was ordained a pastor in the Baptist Church. He died in Newport, Rhode Island in 1694. ("The Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy" states that Hugh Mosher came from England to America in 1630 and married 1632, Lydia Maxon).

--"The Greene Family" pp 150. 929.273-G83gw, SLC Gen. Library

Hugh came from Cucklington Parish, Somersetshire, England to Casco Bay, Saco, Maine (1630) then to Westerly, Rhode Island.

The father of Hugh Mosher was Stephen and was born in Strasbourg, B-Rhn, France. His father was Hugh Moshier also of Strasbourg, France but he died in Manchester, Lncshr. England.

Hugh Mosher and Lydia Maxson were the 8th great-grandparents of Ira Corbett Stone, Jr.